1888PressRelease - Popular fantasy writer K.L. Bone recently released her newest book, Heir to Koloso, the second in the Rise of the Temple Gods series, to the acclaim of delighted readers.

"Fear to the fearless. Hope to the hopeless. Mercy to those who hate you. Death to those who love you. That is your destiny, Princess of Kale, Princess of Koloso, heir to both."

- Prophecy of the Kalian Twins

Fans of K.L. Bone's dark fantasy have a new book to devour - the second installment of the Rise of the Temple Gods series. Titled Heir to Koloso, the book describes the ongoing struggle for the throne as the beloved characters from the first book, Heir to Kale, continue their journey to deal with their royal responsibilities and their dark past while battling enemies and trying to understand who truly has their best interests at heart.

"Finishing Heir to Koloso and continuing this journey has been an amazing experience," Bone said. "I enjoyed working on this book and seeing where the characters wanted to go and how the conflict would continue to develop."

In the newest book, Princess Mariana strives to bring factions of the kingdom together to establish a unified leadership. The process to accomplish this involves working with powerful lords and rival families as well as dealing with the conflict between those who serve the Temples and those who choose not to do so. Her sister, Princess Ameria, is obsessed with locating her father's killer, with no regard for her own personal safety and a focus on establishing her own successful future as queen. Finding the truth leads her to learn about the dark side of her past. In Heir to Koloso, both sisters face their grief and their confusion over who is truly an ally.

Appealing to readers of dark fantasy, the Rise of the Temple Gods series is now available on Amazon. For more information on K.L. Bone, to learn about her book signing schedule, or to hear about release dates for her newest books, visit the author's website, <http://www.klbone.com>.
